Info on GW Farmer Family obtained from - Year: 1850 State: Georgia County: Oglethorpe Sheet No: 35B Reel No: M432-80 Division: 66th Division Page No: 69

Children of GEORGE FARMER and MARY FARMER are:

2.
 - i. WILLIAM T.² FARMER, b. 24 Dec 1831; d. 14 Sep 1914.
 - ii. ETHEDRAL FARMER, b. Abt. 1833.
 - iii. HENRY FARMER, b. Abt. 1888.

Notes for HENRY FARMER:

There are many Carters and a few Farmers on Oglethorpe County's Beaverdam Primitive Baptist Church membership lists. The names Henry and Elizabeth do not appear as far as I know, except in two instances. One of Henry Farmer's slaves named Leander was a member of the church, which likely means that Henry Farmer attended the church even if he never became a member. That may also mean that he is related to the other Farmers in the church, since rural, southern churches provided opportunities for family members to see each other. It is not unheard of that masters would allow slaves to attend churches without them, but it is more likely that the slaves went to church with their masters. Also, there is an Eliza/Liza Carter in the church, but I don't know if this name is short for Elizabeth or not. The church's records can be found at the University of Georgia library. I may have a few more membership dates, etc. if you think there is a good connection here to the people you are looking for. Just reply to my e-mail and I'll send them to you.

Notes for WILLIAM T. FARMER:

William T Farmer Served in:

CONFEDERATE GEORGIA TROOPS

44th Regiment, Georgia Infantry

44th Infantry Regiment completed its organization at Camp Stephens, near Griffin, Georgia, in March, 1862. Its companies were drawn from the counties of Henry, Jasper, Clarke, Clayton, Spalding, Putnum, Fayette, Pike, Morgan, and Greene. The regiment moved to Goldsboro, North Carolina, then arrived in Virginia just after the Battle of Seven Pines. It served in General Ripley's, Doles', and Cook's Brigade, and fought with the Army of Northern Virginia from the Seven Days' Battles to Cold Harbor. The 44th continued the fight in the Shenandoah Valley and ended the war at Appomattox. It lost sixty-four percent of the 524 engaged at Mechanicsville and fortysix percent of the 142 at Malvern Hill. The regiment reported 17 killed and 65 wounded during the Maryland Campaign, sustained 121 casualties at Chancellorsville, and of the 364 at Gettysburg, twenty percent were disabled. It surrendered with 4 officers and 73 men. The field officers were Colonels John B. Estes, Samuel P. Lumpkin, William H. Peebles, and Robert A. Smith; Lieutenant Colonel James W. Beck; and Majors Joseph W. Adams, Richard O. Banks, and John C. Key.
